Seeing the look on the face of that kid who used to be in our house, I guess I can understand why they would not want to talk about it. "Just one more cup. Then I'm done." I stood up and stretched as the hostess walked up to me. "You know, this is just a work meeting." I let her know with my eyes that I was teasing. I took the cup of tea and thanked her. "It's been a long day." I smiled as I moved down the row towards the exit.  The following day I arrived at my office, just in time to hear my secretary say, "Mandy, can I help you?" I was a bit annoyed that she was interrupting my lunch, especially at work, but I had a meeting with the CFO and thought I would give it a go. "Mandy? Who are you talking to?" "Oh, just Mandy." I thought she would know who she was talking to, and walked over to my desk. "Mandy, who are you talking to?" I was confused by the name and leaned over my desk to see who she was talking
