Hello, thanks for all the information, but the matching between the printer and the software appears not so clear. Could you give me the right tool to reset a Canon MG5650 printer Is it the Canon Service Tool V3400 Or the Canon Service Tool V5103 (as indicated by the page title)NB : I already tried with the V3400 tool with my PC Windows 10, 64 bits: with the printer connected with an USB cable, turned on (5B00 error indicated), the fields of the Service tool v3400.exe window appear in black and can be selected, but I remain with the 006 error (printer not in service mode). Once the printer is switched into service mode, all buttons becomes grey and cannot be activated. An alternative solution NOT TO BE USED AS A CANON REPAIR SERVICE.
